NEW!!! 2008 Summer Clinics (camps)

Caroline's teaching style and approach begins with careful observation and personal assessments of both horse and owner. This enables her to offer insights and awareness' that encourage clinic participants to better understand their horses so that they can not only "take the time it takes" but "deal with the horse that presents itself, in that moment." Sharing her knowledge and experience, Caroline will make it possible for both clinic participants and auditors to move toward a more harmonious relationship with their horses.

The following 3 - 5 day clinic (camp) courses are now available. For detailed descriptions of each, please visit: www.carolinerider.com, under "Group Clinics."

Please note: each course is designed to set the foundation for the next, with subsequent courses requiring completion of the prior.
